What Is Worship?

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.
Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.
Psalm 100:1-2 NIV

What is worship? What are we doing when we get together on Sunday morning? Why do we do the things we do? These end up being harder questions to answer than at first glance. Yes, we can offer a theological definition that involves the presence of God's Spirit and the gathered people of God. And this definition can serve as a "skeleton" to what worship is. But once we start hanging details upon this skeleton in order to define worship, we can find it difficult to narrow it down any further.

Does worship involve singing? It can. Does it include preaching? It can. Does it have times to give, to pray aloud, to listen to others pray, to listen to others sing? All of these elements are quite legitimate ways to worship. In the end, when considering Sunday morning worship, none of these elements is required but all are encouraged.

A survey of Christian corporate worship through the centuries and around the world testifies to how diverse worship can be! I remember worshiping with Russian Baptists, Indian Brethren, Puerto Rican Charismatics, and American Methodists. The nature of their worship, the atmosphere, the tone, nearly everything about their worship was indistinguishable from the other. We at Mount Hermon who are familiar with one kind of worship may feel quite uncomfortable and out of place worshiping with sisters and brothers in the Middle East, the birthplace of Christianity, or even in the African American church down the street. And yet we can be challenged to rethink worship at Mount Hermon in the process.

This month during Sunday worship I will be asking these questions above and ruminating on why we worship and how we can bring more worship into Sunday worship. I look forward to walking this journey of worship together.

In Christ, Pastor Rich

Stewardship

In December, we regrettably accepted the resignation of our Financial Secretary/Bookkeeper, Vickie Sorrell. We are grateful to her for the many years she served the church in this role. We wish Vickie and her family well in their new endeavors as residents of Holden Beach.

We are in the process of hiring a new Bookkeeper and will begin reporting our financial status as soon as possible.

At the December business meeting it was voted to begin the repayment of $32,000 borrowed from the Church Money Market account for the parsonage renovation. The repayment will be made from the Property Renovation Fund in the amount of $534/month for 5 years. The first payment was made January 14.

Please consider increasing your giving with a contribution to the PRP fund.

On January 9 the church approved the 2022 budget by a vote of 30-1

Please continue to pray for the financial health of the Church. Peggy Mason, Treasurer

Children and Youth Ministry

Greetings Mount Hermon Family!

In January we had a prayer retreat, during the prayer retreat, we learned different ways to pray and devote ourselves to God daily. We praised God through song, studied God's Word through Lectio Divina, prayed thoughtfully during a prayer walk around the church, prayed creatively through praying in color, and did meditative and reflective prayer at the end of the day.

The Youth have been planning a Foosball Tournament/Fundraiser. However, due to inclement weather the Foosball Tournament was rescheduled and is now scheduled for February 5 @ 2:00p. Come join us for a fun time and support your Foosball Athletes.

This February we will be having a Valentine's Day party on February 12.

Two of our students will be traveling with the Mission Team to Guatemala this month. Please be praying for them as they do God's will there.

Thank you all so much for your support of the Student Ministry at Mount Hermon Baptist Church!

Blessings, Brydon John DeWitt

DISICPLESHIP

Are you a duck or an eagle? This is based on a facebook article I found. I'll give you the Reader's Digest Version as it was kind of long. (If you want to read the whole thing let me know and I'll send it to you) The story is about a cabbie in a big city that picked up a fare at the airport. His clothes were neatly cleaned and pressed, he had a smile on his face and got out of the cab to open the door for his passenger. As he put her luggage in the trunk, he gave her a laminated card that had his mission statement. It read: "Wasu's Mission Statement: to get my customers to their destination in the quickest, safest and cheapest way possible in a friendly environment."

The customer was astounded as she got into an extremely clean cab, was offered a drink, reading material, one of which was a Bible, was asked if the temperature was comfortable and if she wanted information about the city as they travelled or peace and quiet. She said, "Wasu, have you always served customers like this?"

He answered with a smile on his face that for the first 5 years of driving, he was like the other cabbies and spent most of his time complaining. Then he heard about the power of choice one day. Power of choice is that you can be a duck or an eagle. If you get up in the morning expecting to have a bad day, you'll rarely disappoint yourself. Stop complaining. Don't be a duck be an eagle. Ducks quack and complain. Eagles soar above the crowd.

He had spent the first 5 years as a driver complaining but he made the choice to stop. He made a few changes at a time and as people responded positively, he made more. With the changes he made, he became more successful, happier and had a positive influence on the people he had contact.

Are you going to be a duck or an eagle? It's your choice.
